Police investigating fatal collision involving two pedestrians

Howard County police are investigating a fatal collision involving two pedestrians that occurred overnight in Jessup.

At approximately 11:14 p.m., a 2002 Honda Civic was traveling southbound on Washington Boulevard (Route 1) approaching Port Capital Drive when it struck two pedestrians who were on the ground in the roadway. A witness reported the pedestrians were in a physical altercation in the travel portion of the roadway.

Both pedestrians were pronounced dead after being transported to the University of Maryland Shock Trauma Center. They will be identified after police have made contact with their families.

The driver of the Honda, Zachary Jordan Tillett, 22 of Elkridge, and passenger, Rachel Elisabeth Aymold, 20, of Catonsville were not injured. No charges have been filed.

Washington Boulevard (Route 1) was closed between Route 175 and Montevideo Road for approximately three hours. The investigation is ongoing.
